First Sunday of Advent November 27, 2016

The readings for December 4

Second Sunday of Advent

Reading I: Isaiah 11:1-10

Reading II: Romans 15:4-9

Gospel: Matthew 3:1-12

In the first reading Isaiah presents a picture of an ideal king and an ideal kingdom. The people's lives would send a message to the world that God's kingdom is here to stay. John tells his followers that the time has come for them to reform their lives. His baptism was a ceremony for followers to express their intention of conversion. And John promises that the one to follow him would baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire, a baptism that would carry the power of God. John confronts the religious leads of his day and attacks their insincerity. Their religion is only on the outside for people to see. He says that their lives don't show evidence of conversion.

Question of the Week

We all know people who seem to lead fruitful lives. Who are these people in your life? In what ways have their lives affected you?

In Thanksgiving

I hope that you had a wonderful Thanksgiving with your loved ones. It is a special day, a time when we can take a few moments to think about what is important in our lives and to give thanks. On that note, I would like share with you something I read recently.

10 signs you're doing well in life:

- You have a roof over your head.
- You ate today.
- You have a great heart.
- You wish good for others.
- You have clean water.
- You have someone who cares for you.
- You strive to be better.
- You have clean clothes.
- You have a dream.
- You're breathing.

Be thankful for the little things, for they are the most important.

Advent

Today, we begin the season of Advent. A time of quiet and reflection as we prepare for the birth of Jesus Christ. During Advent the Church invites us to prepare to celebrate both Jesus' birth and his promise to return at the end of time. In the readings for the first Sunday in Advent, Jesus exhorts the disciples to be vigilant in their daily tasks, whether in the field or at the mill, they must be ever watchful for the coming of the Lord. As the season of Advent begins, we too are encouraged to look for all the times and ways that the Lord intervenes in our daily lives.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

We have also marked the end of the Jubilee Year of Mercy declared by Pope Francis. My hope is that you found ways to show mercy, especially to those in need whether that be material needs or prayers. I also hope that it was a time of healing for past hurts and forgiveness that will give you, or those who received the blessing of your forgiveness, peace in the days ahead. Again, I hope you had a happy and blessed Thanksgiving and my prayers go with you this Advent Season — this time of watchful waiting.

THANK YOU AND HATS OFF . . . To Diane Lynum for the beautiful pots of mums that graced our doors this fall and the beautiful flowers she planted and cared for throughout the summer. Now, thanks to Lisa Hayes, we have outstanding holiday arrangements adorning our doors. They certainly say welcome! And, a special thank you to Sue Kelly who, throughout the year, lovingly donates and cares for the plants and flowers surrounding the columbarium in memory of her husband, Bill.

Fr. Bob

There is Eucharistic Adoration every Thursday in the Historic Church beginning at 8:30 a.m. (after Daily Mass) and ending at 8 p.m. Do you know that the Lord loves it when you take time to express your gratitude to Him? Chaplet of Divine Mercy follows.

Simpson Housing

On Sunday, December 4, St. Victoria volunteers will prepare and serve dinner at Simpson Housing in Minneapolis. Simpson Housing provides meals and overnight shelter for homeless men and women.

In addition to providing the meal, St. Victoria parishioners have an opportunity to donate a variety of items for the guests served here. Currently they are in need of new or gently used blankets, pillows and extra-long twin sheets, new socks for men and women, new men's underwear/boxers and new t-shirts in sizes medium to X-large, women's new underwear in sizes 6 to 9 and new bras in sizes A to DD, shampoo, stick deodorant, foot powder and coffee. If you would like to donate an item or two, you will find a box on the coat rack in the Commons.

Contact Jan Wohlers at wohlershome@yahoo.com for information or to volunteer to help with the dinner. St. Victoria volunteers at Simpson Housing approximately every six weeks.

A Catechist's Prayer

Father of all families, you have called me to serve the family in truth and love as a catechist. May I be faithful to this call, rooted in your Word, and open to the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

May I use these gifts, especially the gifts of faith, hope, and love, to serve the family as a witness to you, who are love and life and the source and destiny of all families.

Let your Spirit enlighten my mind and strengthen my heart so that I can be a path of Christ's love to families, especially those in need, the homebound and aged, the disabled and disheartened.

Through the intercession of Mary and Joseph, I pray for the Church, the Bride of Christ, whose mission to build a civilization of love passes through the family.

Amen.
