

JOEL BLUNK

COUNTRY FOLK SINGER/SONGWRITER

LANOCHE AZUL—DECEMBER 4

Joel Blunk brings his vocal talents to St. Victoria with a very interesting background. He's a former World Football League Player, a former college football coach and is currently the co-pastor of a Christian Community in Richmond, Virginia. At LaNoche Azul, we'll have the chance to enjoy his singing and song writing skills. His country folk music, originally recorded in Nashville, may remind us of James Taylor or Gordon Lightfoot. His songs tell personal stories that find a connection and deeper meaning with God. He and his wife Kristen have three grown sons. We hope you can join us!
