Sunday of Divine Mercy April 3, 2016

The readings for April 10

Third Sunday of Easter

Reading I: Acts 5:27-32, 40-41

Reading II: Revelation 5:11-14

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Feed

My

Sheep

The scene in this Gospel appears as a commentary upon a statement made by Jesus: "Apart from me you can do nothing." Apart from him their efforts have been fruitless, but now that they are with him, anything is possible. Peter's leadership role is expressed in pastoral imagery. With leadership comes responsibility and a call to imitate the selfless love of Christ. It is summed up in the statement, "Follow me." The risen Lord invites him not only to death but to resurrection. Jesus passed from this world to the Father through death. Those who profess to follow the Lord must take the same route. That is why Jesus is truly "the way."

Question of the Week

Sunday of Divine Mercy

On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, it is a special time to think about this Year of Mercy as proclaimed by Pope Francis. There are many ways to pray, learn and act throughout this year. Over the next several weeks I plan to explore the Corporal Works of Mercy and Spiritual Works of Mercy and how they relate to us as a parish and as individuals. In the meantime, you might want to check out the website www.archspm.org/Mercy for information and ideas.

Welcome

Like me, I am sure most of you woke up on Holy Thursday to the news that Pope Francis had officially named Archbishop Bernard Hebda as the new leader of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. He had been serving as Apostolic Administrator since June with plans to assume leadership of the Newark, NJ, Diocese upon the retirement of the current Archbishop.

Upon hearing of his appointment, Archbishop Hebda said he was "humbled by this expression of Pope Francis' confidence and honored to serve this Archdiocese."

I can tell you that shortly after his appointment in June that Deacon Ray and I had an opportunity to meet with him and we found him to be warm and very pastoral. We could also ascertain that he was fully aware of the responsibility he was undertaking coming into our local Church during these difficult times. We got the sense that he would offer humble and thoughtful leadership taking our Church into a brighter future. His installation Mass is scheduled for Friday, May 13, at the Cathedral of St. Paul.

Thank you

A simple thank you hardly seems adequate for our beautiful and blessed Holy Week. The Liturgies with their readings and outstanding music were perfection. They represented many, many hours of work and preparation by Elizabeth Nowak, Tim Amundsen and Deacon Ray, all the singers and musicians, the Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Servers, and Greeter/Ushers as well as the volunteers who decorated the Worship Space. A special thank you to Lisa Hayes for the beautiful outdoor decorations. I also want to say thank you to Tim Amundsen, Janie Jasin and Elizabeth Nowak for the beautiful Stations of the Cross they presented on Good Friday. It was truly inspiring.

Special HATS OFF AND THANK YOU to John Breeggemann, grandson of Dick and Mary Schmieg. John made the stand on which we built the fire for the Easter Vigil. Dick and Mary's family made the stand to honor the memory of their daughter Barb who loved camp fires and was buried here in our cemetery last August.

A Trip in Your Future?

I am leading a fabulous trip next year and I am hoping you might want to join me. We will travel to Brazil and Argentina visiting Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, Iguazu Falls and Buenos Aires. A highlight of the trip will be a "Pope Francis" tour visiting important places in his life. Find more details on our website or in brochures in the kiosk or call me. I hope you can join me.

Fr. Bob

Eucharistic Adoration is every Thursday in the Historic Church beginning at 8:30 a.m. (after Daily Mass) and ends at 8 p.m. Spend time with Jesus and establish a truly personal relationship with Him. Chaplet of the Divine Mercy follows.

Welcome to Cave Quest: Following Jesus, the Light of the World!

In just a few short months, our church will be getting a subterranean makeover as we begin a gem of an adventure at Cave Quest Vacation Bible School (VBS). Kids will worship Jesus through songs and prayer, experiment with Sciencey-Fun Gizmos and discover life-changing Bible truths in fun and memorable ways.

To have the best adventure possible, we need lots of volunteers who can give some time, energy and love to the kids who will attend. So let me share a few ideas about ways you might be able to make this program a success. Please check out the following list, and then pray about where God might use you.

Station Leaders: Use easy-to-follow station leader manuals and prepare one 20-minute session each day that you will repeat with four different groups of approximately 20 kids. We need leaders for the following stations:

- Sing and Play Rock/Cave Quest Closing (daily opening and closing, includes leading songs)
- Imagination Station (fun, hands-on science experiments)
- Spelunker Sports and Games (fun games that reinforce Bible truths)
- KidVid™ Cinema (video featuring the real-life adventures of real kids and discussion)
- Cavern Café (helping kids make snacks)
- Deep Bible Quests (incredible, surprising explorations of Bible stories)

Crew Leaders: Shepherd a mixed-age group of five elementary children through each day’s activities . . . and there’s no preparation!

Crew Leaders for preschoolers: Be a friend and helper to a group of five preschool children . . . again, no preparation required!

Still don’t see something that interests you? We’d also love to have a . . .

- Decorating team
- Photographer
- Publicity coordinator
- Supply coordinator

Guess what? There are also a few spots for anyone who is dramatically inclined. Whatever your gifts, abilities and time commitment, we’ve got a place for you.

We believe that God will use this incredible program to reach many children with the ultimate message of His love, so please prayerfully consider your role in Cave Quest VBS. Feel free to contact me by email, phone, or in person if you have any questions.
