Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 11, 2018

March 18

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Reading I: Ezekiel 37:12-14

Reading II: Romans 8:8-11

Gospel: John 11:1-45

These readings marvel at the creative, life-giving power of God. Ezekiel tells us that the God, who can transform lifeless bones into vital human beings, can restore a nation from the death of exile to a life of freedom. Paul tells the Romans that the power of the Spirit brings our mortal bodies to life through the creative, transforming presence of the Spirit of God dwelling in us. In the Gospel, we see a marvelously dramatic example of the power of God to bring life out of death. The essential message for us is Jesus' pronouncement: "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." (John 11:25)

Question of the Week

RCIA

Universal Call to Holiness

All the faithful are called to live the fullness of the Christian life as they strive to attain the perfection of charity, which is love (Lumen Gentium). This call to holiness of life is rooted in the mission of the Church to take sinners and raise them into saints by the transforming glory and perfection of Jesus. Holiness, sanctity, saintliness — these are not things that we can attain by our own efforts alone. But our Free Will can dispose us to follow the example of Christ — one step at a time — so that by Grace we may say with St. Paul that "it is no longer I who lives, but Christ who lives in me" (Gal. 2:20).

But the call to holiness is not an easy road to follow. We stumble, we fall. We often blind ourselves to Truths we don't want to see, and we deceive ourselves that we (not God) are the final arbiters of what is Good and what is Evil. Our First Parents made the same mistake long ago, and it seems we still haven't learned our lesson.

This Tuesday in RCIA, we will discuss several "hot topics" in Christian morality now facing the Church and our world. Our goal is not to judge the sinner (we ALL are sinners), but to discern the Way and the Truth which leads to Life, rejoicing that God is not waiting to pounce when we sin but rather is waiting to shower us with mercy when we turn to Him. The Psalmist expresses well the sublime mystery of God's grace when he declares: "Love and truth will meet; justice and mercy shall kiss" (Ps. 85:10). Join us at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, March 13.

Easter Flowers

You are invited to beautify our worship space and honor your loved ones with donations for Easter flowers. Donations are due by Friday, March 30. Simply turn in your donation along with a note saying who it is from and the name(s) of those to be remembered. Mark the envelope "Easter Flowers, Attention Elizabeth" and mail it to the church, drop it in the collection basket at Mass or bring it to the parish office. Checks should be made out to St. Victoria.

Lenten Reconciliation

Individual confessions at St. Victoria are on March 27 and 28 beginning at 6 p.m.

Times and dates at other area parishes are:

- St. Mary's, Waverly, Monday, March 12, 7 p.m.

...to be the face and hands of Jesus Christ

Welcome

This weekend we welcome Fr. Thomas Hunstiger to St. Victoria. Fr. Hunstiger is speaking on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach which was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia and Central and South America. Fr. Hunstiger is a native of St. Paul, MN and was ordained in 1963 in the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Retiring after 40 years of parish work in the Archdiocese, Fr. Hunstiger now has the opportunity to be a voice for the poor by encouraging links between U.S. parishes and those serving in the developing world.

A Heavy Heart

It is with a heavy heart that I thank you for the outpouring of prayers and messages of sympathy to me and my family following the death of my brother Jim. As I mentioned at Masses last week, Jim succumbed to a battle with cancer on Wednesday, February 28. His funeral was this past Wednesday, March 7, at the St. Thomas University Chapel.

Being only one year younger than me, Jim and I always shared a special camaraderie. Jim was a typical White — always busy — a 40-year career, community involvement with everything from visiting and befriending incarcerated individuals to membership in the MN Streetcar Museum. He also found time for a daily swim at the YMCA and over the years, attended 45 Jesuit Retreats. Most importantly, he was devoted to his wife Sarah and their children, Elizabeth, Andrew, Peter, Michael and Charlie and he was a great brother. He will be missed. Again, thank you for your outpouring of love and support.

I also had the honor to concelebrate at the funeral for Fr. Frederick Schneider, OFM on Wednesday, February 28. Fr. Fred was born in Victoria on June 20, 1923 and was baptized at St. Victoria on June 24, 1923. He joined Franciscans of the Sacred Heart Province in 1942 and was ordained on June 24, 1949. He said his first Mass at St. Victoria on June 26, 1949. In addition to serving at numerous parishes throughout the U.S., Fr. Fred spent 30 years as a missionary in Brazil along the Amazon River. Fr. Fred retired in 2003.

Fr. Fred's brother Fr. Conran Schneider, OFM also is buried at St. Victoria. He was ordained in 1947 and celebrated his first Mass at St. Victoria on July 1, 1951.

Fr. Fred and Fr. Conran were among a number of young men and women from St. Victoria who left home to enter religious orders. In the parish history, it is noted that "11 sons and 7 daughters chose the priesthood or religious life". It was said at one time that, per capita, St. Victoria had more men and women joining religious orders than any parish in the United States. The names of many of them are familiar yet today — Schneider, Robling, Schmieg, Diethelm and Wartman for example. With the passing of Fr. Fred, it is the end of a line of Franciscans from St. Victoria. Fr. Bob

There is Eucharistic Adoration every Thursday in the Historic Church beginning at 8:30 a.m. (after Daily Mass) and ending at 8 p.m. Spend time with Jesus in the Eucharist and establish a truly personal relationship with Him. Chaplet of Divine Mercy follows.

Daylight Saving Time started at 2 a.m. today. Hopefully you set your clocks ahead.

St. Victoria has committed to serving the participants during their stay at Shepherd of the Hill Church in Chaska on eight different opportunities during 2018.
